FASHION CATALOG

The way we craft Indonesia's traditional fabrics, specific in Batik & Tenun, into modern fashion that brings happiness and boosts creativity is our work principle and pride.

We live to deliver the nationalism value of loving Indonesia's pure treasure: our beloved culture.

We are focusing on implementing sustainable coloring the fabrics and waste management practices that will benefit our society.

APIKMEN's natural-dyed batik celebrates Indonesia's living heritage through sustainable artistry. Using Indigofera tinctoria plant-based dyes and traditional hand-dyeing techniques, each motif tells a story of cultural identity and authenticity. This collection merges ethical craftsmanship with modern aesthetics, creating garments that honor tradition while supporting environmental responsibility.
